Gunnar Fox recently appeared on my radio program, "Education Today" which is broadcast in Southern California on KVCR (91.9 fm) and KUCR (88.3 fm).

As a community college professor (my day job) I can attest to the fact that Gunnar's book, "KickAss in College" is spot-on, both in content and approach. His concept is hot, and his book should be available in every college bookstore, across the country.

He was a great interview – we may not wait until his next book to ask him back!
